

Equine Marketing Manual

SellTheHorse.com's Essential Guide to Marketing Your Horse: Putting Your Horse on the Fast Track to Being Sold©

The full version of this Equine Marketing Manual will be available to sellers once they have purchased a service package from us. It will be available in your Seller Tools section, as well as being sent to you in an email once your order is confirmed.

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

Section I: The Golden Rule of Advertising and How to Launch an Effective Marketing Campaign.

- A. The Golden Rule of Advertising is Defined
- B. Create Awareness
- C. Presentation is Key: Professional Image Will Get Attention
- D. Compel the Buyer to Take Action
- E. High-Tech and Low-Tech Marketing Methods

Section II: How to Use SellTheHorse.com's High-Impact Sales Tools for Maximum Results

- A. A Web Site is a Tool, Not a Silver Bullet: The Art of Cross-Promotion
 - a. List with Web Classified Sites

- b. Advertise with Professional Associations by Breed and by Discipline
- B. Print Marketing Materials: Reaching Your Audience Off The Web
 - a. Participate in a Co-Op Ad Placement in Print Publications
 - b. Place Your Own Print Ad or Classified Listing with Breed and/or Discipline Publications
 - c. Where to Put Your Marketing Fliers
 - d. What to Do with Your Business Cards
- C. Lessons in Direct Marketing. And We Mean “Direct”. Turning Your Horse into a Billboard

Section III: Communicating with Potential Buyers

- A. Respond to Inquiries in a Timely Manner
- B. Explain How You Came to the Value/Price of Your Horse
- C. Be Honest About What You Know, And What You Don’t Know
- D. Be Patient: Lots of Questions Indicate a Strong Interest
- E. Vet Records: Offer Them Up, If Available
- F. Arranging the Visit

Section IV: Closing the Sale

- A. Selling: Tips of the Trade
- B. Contracts and Seeking Legal Advice
- C. Negotiation and Creating a Win/Win Deal